New York, April D.-If the way Easter racing season opened at Washing ton is to be taken as a criterion, "there's nothing to it," to use the vernamicr-the season of 1800 is going to chose with any year, even of the "boom" period. This is not saying that the meing was of any great which was period to be expense. It was not, but it is not to be expense. The College of Greating Ten College.

But, on the whole, the raching was clean and wholesome. The episode of Dunlants ! ride on St. Samuel on Saturday was unpleasant, and may be expected to end that jockey's career in the saddle torever and a day. At that, it somms on the face of affairs, that one can hardly suspect criminal its intent in Paulop's extraordinary performsuce, for, if it was a deliberate act, with the purpose of stopping the horse from winning, it was altogether the most batefaced thing that was ever seen on a race course. Unless it can be proved that the ring took undue libertles with St. Samuel, it would be the most reasonable conclusion that Puniop, out of practice and condition was foolish enough to rely on Durch courage," and under its influence everded the waiting orders he had to an idiotic ex-

Good Work at Washington.

The Washington Jockey Club has retab-lished itself, and is now only hampered by the very considerable load of debt in-curred during the years it took to gain a status. Racing in the Capital City has finally got over the "black eys" that the cutlaw racing just over the river in Virginia gave it. It is recognized as an en-Joyable and reputable sport, and the best people in the city patronize it. The task that Mr. Howland shouldered was a heavy one, and it is only by sheer persistence that he has beaten down the obstacles and made a success.

The indebtedness of the association is regrettable, principally because it pre-cludes the immediate adoption of any scheme for really extensive improvements. The alterations that will be made before the fall will give some more elbow room. especially in the betting inclosure, but the grounds are altogether too circumscribed. On such a day as Saturday, it was almost a case of fighting one's way to get ground

Mr. Caseldy deserves every consideration on the high average excellence of his starting during the meeting. He has adopted the best machine that has yet been used in the East, a modification of and improvement on the original Australian gate that was first used in California.

Mn Cassidy has not fallen into the error present day, and does not have his horses too close under him. He puts them far enough back to enable him to gain a thorough idea of how they are breaking before he has to drop his flag, and this is undoubtedly one of the main reasons why he makes very few mistakes.

The opening of the Acqueduct meeting, while, in one sense, it is merely a preliminary, promises more than well, and even bad weather would hardly prevent even bad weather would hardly prevent it from being a financial success. Super-intendent Bob Tucker is at his wirs' end to find accommodation for the army of horses that are ready to run at the meeting. Some new stables have been built, but even then the stabling at the track is totally inadequate, and it looks as if many owners will have to be content to bring their horses over from the tracks in the Concy Island district when they want to start, though this, of course, is a disadstart, though this, of course, is a disadstart, though this, of course, is a disadvantage.

There probably never has been such an overflowing supply of horses ready for the spring meetings, and even now, at Morris Park, Superintendent Gorman is sorely puzzled, despite the great range of stabling at his disposal, to bestow the strings that keep coming in.

To-morrow's pard at Aqueduot is very good. The fields are big and well matched, and while the Carter Handicap raturally absorbs most of the class of the day, the other events promise lively racing.

So far as the big handicap is concerned, it is rather a pity that old Imp. is not in the field, The mare got a shockingly had deal at Washington on Saturday, and not one practical racing man in the ten that saw the race could have been interesting to see how she would have been interesting to see how she would have been interesting to see how her off in front with 122 pounds on her back, against a feather weighted old horse like Lexington Pirate, was too paipable to be repeated.

It is highly probable that the race will result in a surprise, and that some little-considered outsider will get the money. No secret has been made of the fact that the top weight. Firearm, is thoroughly it.

Tebeau Troupe Had a Hard Time Making Runs Off Lit tle Milligan.

BLANKED FOR SIX INNINGS.

Errors and Lucky Hitting Gave the Home Team Seven Runs in 1's Last Two Turns at Bat-Pretty Pitching.

Milligar, a patcher of the bay wander order, did a gilt-edge kinking sting for Buffulo in six finlings of yesterday's game at League Park. To the seventh he had St. Louis shut out, in that inning Andrews threw Ke'ster's grammier wild. That started a rally. Hits by McGann, Wallace and Origer followest the misplay and three runs were soon tailled. Through it all the youngster pitched hall that won the spplause of the blenchers.

That was enough to haid the game. Buffalo could not touch Young and Powell. Just for good measure, Heldrick and Donovan opened the eighth with singles, Heldrick's being a very near bunt. Then Kelster drove one to right center, where he soldom hits, it was a triple, McClann followed with a wallop to deep left, where he also rarely bits, for another triple. Then the sturds little Millians, who never turned a hair when these batting miscarriages took place, sent the next three men out on !

Milligan is a left-hander, cool and a very close student of bases. He seems to have a good delivery. Certainly he had the St. Louis team on his staff for a long time. But a boy, he is a stout lad, a very Cuppy in his ichess. He may not do, but he will bear watching.

En passant, it may be remarked that the showing made by the St. Louis club against the two Buffalo left-handers, Amole and Milligan, was not calculated to instill high hopes of victory when they meet the famous "Rube" Waddell, who is slated to pitch the opening game for Pittsburg next Thursday, Indeed, were it not for errors such as Keister and McGann did vesterday, the games would have been much closer. They were too close as it was. Three hits in six innings was all Mr. Tebeau's killers secured off the little school-

stall, for he delimed Lathlan, all "aber trail
